

Thursday 30 May | 1pm

Lumas Winds

Ibert Trois Pièces Brèves
I Allegro
II Andante
III Assez lent - Allegro scherzando

Taffanel Wind Quintet in G minor
I Allegro con moto
II Andante
III Vivace Arvo

Pärt Quintettino
I Schnell
II Langsam
III Massig

Dvořák String Quartet No 12 in F Op 96 'American'
I Allegro ma non troppo
II Lento
III Molto vivace
IV Vivace ma non troppo

Lumas Winds

Lumas Winds is a dynamic, young chamber ensemble based in London. Winners of the 71st Royal Over-Seas League Mixed Ensemble Prize in 2023, Lumas are committed ambassadors for wind chamber music and the rich variety of repertoire that it offers. The ensemble are Making Music's Phillip and Dorothy Green Young Artists and will take up an Aldeburgh residency in March 2024 as Britten Pears Young Artists.

Alongside performing the classics of the repertoire, Lumas enjoy exploring and making a case for works not currently in the canon but which deserve to be so. This is highlighted in the six hidden gems that will feature on their debut album due for release in late 2023 for Champs Hill Records. The disc brings together repertoire from every decade from 1960 to 2010 and includes three world premiere recordings of music by Sally Beamish, Gavin Higgins and Elizabeth Maconchy. Lumas won the Royal Academy of Music's Historical Women Composers Prize in 2022 with its performance of the latter, a major discovery from the ensembles visit to the Maconchy archive at St. Hilda's, Oxford.

Lumas have performed at the Corbridge, Ironstone and Winchester Chamber Music Festivals. Amongst these collaborations have been performances of Poulenc's Sextet with pianists Huw Watkins and Benjamin Frith. Other upcoming engagements include a tour of Scottish music clubs in 2024 as recipients of the prestigious Tunnel Trust award, a recital at the Ilkley Concert Club and a tour with Concerts-in-the-West.

'Sounds, vibrations and frequencies can't be owned and there's a practical magic in music that creates a space for understanding and compassion.'

Reginald Mobley, performing with the Academy of Ancient Music on Friday 31 May.

Help spread the magic...

Come and see us again

With this voucher, enjoy a FREE tea or coffee with any food purchase

Valid 11am - 4.30pm | Not valid on Thursdays & Weekends | 1 voucher per transaction | Expires 1 July